In Your Corner

A member from California said: "I had an issue with a credit card company. I called my provider law firm last week, and they sent a letter on my behalf. The credit company refunded my money today in full."

A small business owner from Oregon says, "I've accessed legal service and advice where I would not have in the past because of the cost. I've gained insight and confidence in actions we take (or don't take) because we have consulted with a legal expert."
