

Frederick (Fred) W. Crispin

Fred Crispin, Senior Vice President of United Midwest Savings Bank holds a Bachelor of Science Degree in Business Administration from Auburn University (1970). Fred has over 45 years of institutional as well as non-bank lending experience in conventional and government programs. Since 1988 he has concentrated his efforts in SBA lending operations on a national basis.

Currently Fred is responsible for the United Midwest Saving Bank SBA Small Loan Program, which provides working capital for small businesses on a national basis. He has served as Chairman of the Region IV Liaison Committee, the Technical Issues Committee and the Small Lender Committee for the National Association of Government Guaranteed Lenders (NAGGL). Fred has served on the Advisory Council for the North Florida district Office of SBA and the Advisory Council for the Small Business Development Center at the University of North Florida. He has been the recipient of numerous awards on behalf of his SBA lending, including Outstanding Resource Partner from the Florida SBDC Network, Financial Advocate of the year from the Virgin Island SBDC and Financial Services Champion of the year in Mississippi.