The Atlanta BeltLine is a sustainable redevelopment project that is transforming the city. It will ultimately connect 45 intown neighborhoods via a 22-mile loop of multi-use trails, modern streetcar, and parks – all based on railroad corridors that formerly encircled Atlanta. See and hear about the Atlanta BeltLine up-close and personal with a bus, bike, or walking tour.

Seamlessly connecting several Southwest Atlanta neighborhoods, including historic West End, and Old Fourth Ward Freedom Park, the BeltLine encompasses a diverse collection of art, music, food and culture. The Atlanta BeltLine is easily accessible by entering from two of our most notable community food halls, Ponce City Market and Krog Street Market. These entry points house local favorites offering celebrity chef-owned restaurants and retail shops. As you ride a bike or walk along the BeltLine, explore acres of green space, murals & creative art installations, playgrounds, open athletic field and world-class skate park.
