

Billie Wunderlich serves in a dual role of Business Advisor and Program Manager for the Northeast Indiana SBDC. She has been with the center since November 2002, serving under five regional directors. In addition to business advising, her responsibilities include program oversight, data and supply management, and the scheduling of workshops and courses. She works closely with the Division of Continuing Studies at Purdue University Fort Wayne, which hosts the Northeast Indiana SBDC, along with the Indiana SBDC Lead Center in Indianapolis. Billie is a Fort Wayne native and a graduate of Elmhurst High School. She completed a bachelor's degree through Indiana Wesleyan University in 2018. Her degree is in General Studies with a concentration in business management.
