

Shandy Hanks Moran joined the Montana SBDC, hosted out of the Great Northern Development Corporation, as the Regional Director for the Wolf Point area. Prior to joining the Montana SBDC Shandy worked as an Accounting Assistant at Nemont and a Licensed Insurance Agent for the Mutual of Omaha.

As the Small Business Development Center Regional Director in Wolf Point, Shandy assists entrepreneurs from 7 counties in business planning, financial analysis, market planning, research and management development. She also advises existing businesses on marketing, cash flow analysis, organizational structure and workshops and training. Shandy is a 2014 graduate of Montana State University Billings with a Bachelor's Degree in Business Administration with a Finance option.

Shandy was the recipient of the 2020 Montana "State Star", a national award that recognizes outstanding performers from America's Small Business Development Centers.