

Gina Couillard is the Center Director at the Coconino Community College Small Business Development Center (SBDC) in northern Arizona. A successful serial entrepreneur with a passion for small business, Gina excels at building teams and engaging stakeholders and partners throughout the Flagstaff community and surrounding region.

Gina holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Accountancy from Central Methodist University.

Prior to joining the SBDC, she served as the Compliance Officer for Coconino Community College.

In her current role as a Director in the America's SBDC Arizona Network, Gina puts her more than twenty years of direct business ownership experience and significant financial expertise to work to help create and sustain jobs and economic impact, facilitate capital development and encourage economic development throughout Coconino County and its adjacent Native territories.