

Robin McIntire has been with the SBTDC for over 11 years. She currently serves as the Western District Director and Regional Director for the Charlotte office, covering an 8 county region. Robin holds an MBA from Wingate University and a BS in Business from Thomas Edison State College. Prior to joining the SBTDC, Robin spent most of her career running a $28 million specialty chemical division for a multi-national company. During her time with the SBTDC, she completed the LEAD program (SBTDC leadership development) and the EDFP (economic development finance professional) certification. Robin also chairs the continuing professional education committee which directs all training and staff development activities for the organization.