

Rosa A. Figueroa
Director
LaGuardia Community SBDC Center (NY)

Rosa A. Figueroa is the Director of the Small Business Development Center at LaGuardia Community College and has been working with small businesses for over 25 years in the capacity of Certified Business Advisor and Associate Director of the SBDC. Rosa has provided small business consulting services in strategic management, access to capital and business expansion to the diversion and inclusion community for start-ups and small and medium businesses. She was also part of the implementation of the Goldman Sachs 10,000 Small Businesses program at LaGuardia Community and served as the program's first Business Advisor. She was an Adjunct Instructor at St. John's University, Independent Business Consultant, worked in middle market commercial lending as a credit analyst in asset-based lending and a credit administration officer for an international bank. Rosa received a BA in Education from Queens College of CUNY and an MBA in Financial Management from Pace University, Lubin Graduate School of Business.