

Cynthia Gomez, Senior Business Advisor of the Small Business Development Center was born and raised in Eagle Pass, Texas and Piedras, Negras, Coahuila Mexico. She has worked at the Small Business Development Center for 17 years, and through hard work and dedication, now holds the title of Senior Business Advisor. Throughout her career, she acquired extensive experience in finance, business plans, management, human resources management, marketing, and has mastered the finance and payroll functions of QuickBooks.

Cynthia is a Certified Texas Realtor, former adjunct professor at RGC, a small business owner with her husband and a mother of two young boys and a little girl.

Cynthia is a 2000 C.C. Winn High School honors graduate and top 5% of her class. She graduated with honors from Texas A&M International University and earned a Bachelor's of Business Administration in 2003 and one year later, added a Master's of Business Administration degree in International Business.