

Oregon SBDC State Star

James Wilcox

Small Business Management Program Manager

Central Oregon SBDC

Bio

Jim has more than 20 years of experience working with businesses. His background in management, business ownership and human resources, along with a MBA from Portland State University, makes him highly suited to support the variety of challenges that a small business owner encounters every day. Experience in managing the financial, accounting and day-to-day business operations of a small business have given Jim unique insight into the problems and solutions for business success.