

Sarah Mattson (Senior Small Business Specialist) has been with the TSBDC since 2017. Her areas of expertise include strategic planning, financial analysis and forecasting, business plan development, and accounting. She earned her MBA from the University of Tennessee at Chattanooga and has been a small business owner since 2011. She is best known for helping her clients plan strategically, create systems, and scale their businesses to increase profits.