

STEVE SURGUY

Director, McLennan SBDC

Steve Surguy currently serves as the McLennan SBDC Director. Located in Waco, Texas and hosted by McLennan County Community College.

Steve graduated from Southwest Texas State University with a BBA in Finance. He has over 35 years' experience in the wholesale distribution industry, primarily in the Grocery and Pharmaceutical industries. His areas of concentration include procurement, including State and Federal purchasing, logistics, warehousing, strategic planning, budgeting, employee relations and accounting.

He has worked with both independent, chain retail establishments, has owned, and operated his own small business for thirteen years. He served on several national trade councils in the Pharmaceutical and Grocery industries and continues to look for trends that will best serve the Independent Business Entrepreneur.

Steve has been with the America's SBDC network for twelve years, serving as the Director for the McLennan SBDC in Waco, Texas for the last ten years.