

Beth Gantz Bio

Beth has spent more than eight years in entrepreneurship education. As a Certified Business Advisor and small business owner, Beth demonstrates a creative and empathetic approach to working with clients and is passionate about helping them not only pursue their dreams, but succeed. She has extensive experience in developing and implementing entrepreneurship workshops and programming. Beth received her bachelor's degree in Psychology from Salem College and an M.Ed in Adult Learning and Development from Cleveland State University. She is also certified in GrowthWheel, Profit Mastery, and Entrepreneurial Mindset.