

Gregg Bostick is a highly accomplished professional with a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration, specializing in Finance from the University of Tennessee, Knoxville. Gregg has been a valuable member of successful management teams in diverse industries throughout his career. Notable positions include Credit and Accounts Receivable Manager at Mayfield Dairy Farms, LLC, where he achieved significant reductions in bad debt and improved customer service. He also served as Corporate Manager of Credit and Accounts Receivable at I.J.—a division of Reinhart Food Service—overseeing collections for $50 million in accounts receivable balances. With a strong track record in credit management, Gregg has contributed to the growth and profitability of companies like Plastic Industries, Inc., Arch Chemicals, Inc., Benton Plastics, Inc., and Brach & Brock Confections.

Gregg was recently selected as the new Director for the TSBDC at Pellissippi State Community College in Knoxville, TN. Before this, Gregg served as a specialty consultant during the CARES Act program and was hired full-time as a Small Business Specialist in 2021. In his time with the TSBDC, Gregg has helped launch over 30 businesses and helped small businesses access more than $49 million in funding.

In addition to his professional achievements, Gregg actively serves on the boards of the Holston United Methodist Home for Children and Camp Wesley Woods, demonstrating his commitment to community impact.