

Karla C. Boldery (Cárdenas-Álvarez) -Business Development Director SBDC Miami Regionals| General Market Manager for La Mega Media, Inc. |CEO AccelBG Ltd.

Mrs Boldery is the Business Development Director for the Ohio Small Business Development Centers at Miami University Regionals and has helped over 700 Hispanic Businesses get started, connected to available resources and grow in the Cincinnati metro area. She provides no cost confidential business consulting for small businesses focusing on the minority population needs and expertise in Business operations, systems and process improvement, sales and marketing and increase of profitability.

Mrs. Boldery, acts also as the General Manager for La Mega Media, Inc. the largest Hispanic media platform in the state of Ohio.

Founder and facilitator for the Latina Entrepreneur Academy in Cincinnati, an entrepreneurial bootcamp delivering startup business training for over 150 latina(o)s who have either started or want to start their own businesses. This program not only has provided the necessary entrepreneurial education but is also creating a support network of resources and connections that will enable these latinas a better chance of business success.

She was named 2017 SBA Partner of the year for her distinguished leadership and efforts with the Hispanic business community. 2018 Distinguished Hispanic Ohioan by the Ohio Commission of Hispanic and Latino Affairs (OCHLA), and 2015 Cincinnati Business Courier Forty under 40.

