

Kayla Vokral, Billings Business Advisor

2023 Montana State Star

Kayla is a Business Advisor and Training Manager at the Small Business Development Center (SBDC) at Big Sky Economic Development, where she has been a part of the team since July 2019. Her areas of expertise include Business Plan and Financial Projection Assistance, as well as Food/Ag/Restaurant Assistance. Kayla dedicates herself to the preparation and facilitation of online training sessions in the Billings region as an essential resource for the SBDC. Her prior experience running a small business has allowed her to understand the obstacles and roadblocks entrepreneurs face. Her first-hand knowledge and empathetic approach help her provide the necessary support to entrepreneurs as they work through their business journeys. Kayla holds certifications as an Accredited Small Business Consultant (ASBD), Profit Mastery Facilitator, and Preventive Controls Qualified Individual. In addition to her role at the SBDC, Kayla is a Podcast Host on The Vault at 201 N Broadway, a podcast for innovators & problem solvers talking all things small business, entrepreneurship, and workforce development.
