

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact:

April Youngblut

703-408-5403

april@americassbdc.org

March 19, 2024

America's SBDC Celebrates 9th Annual SBDC Day on March 19th, Highlighting the Power of Small Businesses

Washington D.C. — America's SBDC, the nation's largest and most comprehensive small business assistance network, proudly announces its annual SBDC Day, a nationwide celebration of the hundreds of Small Business Development Centers (SBDCs) that foster local economic growth and help entrepreneurs launch, manage, and grow their businesses.

In partnership with nearly 1,000 SBDC centers across the country, America's SBDC has impacted the success of countless entrepreneurs by providing free or low-cost consulting, training, and resources. SBDC Day serves as a reminder of the SBDC network's dedication to creating the conditions for small businesses to thrive, from bustling urban centers to small rural towns.

"Small businesses form the backbone of our communities and economies," said Charles "Tee" Rowe, President and CEO of America's SBDC. "SBDC Day is a time to celebrate their perseverance, creativity, and resilience. Our nationwide network of SBDCs continues to serve entrepreneurs by offering personalized guidance and support that fuels business growth and job creation."

Highlights of America's SBDC Success

- Expert Advising: SBDC professionals provide one-on-one advice on critical areas such as business planning, financial management, marketing, and technology implementation.
- Proven Results: America's SBDC has helped millions of entrepreneurs secure financing, create new jobs, and increase sales, contributing to robust economic development in the communities they serve.
- Local and Accessible: With nearly 1,000 centers and outreach locations, SBDCs are easily accessible to any entrepreneur or small business owner—serving as a vital resource, especially for rural areas.

Activities and Engagement Throughout SBDC Day, local SBDCs will host virtual workshops, in-person seminars, and community events to highlight success stories and connect entrepreneurs to crucial resources.

Some activities include:

- Success Stories: Real-world testimonials featuring local small businesses that have achieved milestones through SBDC support.
- Webinars and Workshops: Timely topics include e-commerce strategies, financial planning, and leadership.
- Social Media Spotlights: Follow #SBDCDay to join the national conversation, share your business success story, and celebrate the entrepreneurial spirit.

“Every year, SBDC Day brings together a dynamic community of dedicated advisors, innovative partners, and inspiring entrepreneurs,” said April Youngblut, Vice President of America's SBDC. “We look forward to celebrating all our clients have accomplished and will continue working tirelessly to champion small business success.”

How to Get Involved

- Attend Local Events: Visit <https://americassbdc.org> to locate your nearest SBDC center and learn about upcoming workshops or networking opportunities.
- Spread the Word: Join the celebration on social media by using the hashtag #SBDCDay and sharing stories or photos that illustrate your small business journey.
- Access Resources: Whether you're a seasoned entrepreneur or starting out, the nation's SBDCs provide expert advice, training, and resources to help your business thrive.

For more information about SBDC Day or to locate an SBDC near you, visit https:// americassbdc.org.

About America's SBDC: America's SBDC is the nation's largest and most trusted network of small business assistance providers. Through nearly 1,000 centers nationwide, it is dedicated to helping new entrepreneurs realize their dream of business ownership and assisting existing businesses in remaining competitive in an ever-changing global economy.

###

Find your local SBDC: AmericasSBDC.org